| 1   | This particular Land Rover is a genuine factory produced 200 TDi 90" with rear side windows, alpine roof windows, side facing rear seats and a rear wash wipe. Be under no illusions this Defender requires some work to get it to its best, the chassis is in need of replacement or serious amounts of wel ...[more]  |
| 2   | A fabulous looking early 190E in period colour. This Mercedes has had a respray in recent years and looks really fresh for it. Inside it the cloth interior is in great condition other than a few stains on the drivers seat. This particular 190E has the 2.0 litre engine coupled with a 5 speed manual g ...[more]  |
| 3   | This 1988 Diesel 90" has an MOT till August 2021. It runs drives and appears to be very solid. Would make a great winter tool or could be the basis of a running project.For more images go to www.earlswoodclassicauctions.co.uk   |
| 4   | A one owner RAV4 which is in exceptional condition. These mark 1 RAV4's are few and far between now, especially ones in such good condition, it really does not show its 150,000 miles that have been covered by its one and only owner.The service history is second to none too boast no fewer than 25 mai ...[more]  |
| 5   | This Land Rover is a real headturner. Based on a Range Rover Chassis with a Defender body, this V8 powered monster looks and sounds the part!Its 95% complete with just a few minor bits to complete, the handbrake needs connecting and the car needs tracking doing. Once complete it will be ready to con ...[more]  |
| 6   | Back in 1984 a guy called 'Wally' was lucky enough to have this Capri as a company car, back then it had a humble 1.6 litre engine. Wally loved his company car that much he bought it off his company and kept it as his own pride and joy. Many years passed and although Wally loved his Capri very much, ...[more]  |
| 7   | A true classic Brit! This Rover P6 is the more desirable V8 version with automatic gearbox. Dating from 1971it looks very distinguished in Blue with a black roof. It appears to be very complete and has an MOT which is due to expire on 9th December 2020, however it is sold as a project that requires ...[more]   |
| 8   | Earlier versions of Mitsubishi's well regarded Evo are getting hard to find now. This particular Evo is a fourth generation model which was imported from Japan in 2007. The car has been sat for some years now and requires some recommissioning, however it does start and run.For more images see our we ...[more]  |
| 9   | This Triumph still has its original V8 engine combined with an automatic gearbox. It looks great in Saffron Yellow and still retains the hard top as well as the soft top. It appears to be a straight forward project car and not in need of much fettling to get it looking nice.For more images go to www.earlswoodclassicauctions.co.uk ...[more] |
